To remember this year the three captains say: "How are Ya?" "NOSE" "The D-Smack" "Eighty eight!!" "We're playing Walpole, not the sisters of the poor!" "You can tell by the way I use my walk . . . " "Kenan, Kenan, OOOhhh Kenan Black" "shani is a pa, pa, pa," "Hello Lonnie" "Hello, Wiedo" "ICE CREAM!!!" "Ma ma ma ma ma MOUSE" "Oooh Myyy!!" "Fruit. Despite the coaching transition, this team pulled together and showed that a Brookline team can have pride. The captains would like to thank all those that made this possible:

The Booster Club, the devoted fans, the cheerleaders, flag squad, Brookline marching band, and especially, Walter Norton, Sr. for helping to make this team what it is. Thanx.

With the transition into the powerful Bay State League, the team faced tough challenges every day against the best teams in the state. Our not-so-impressive 4-11-3 record is an illustration of just how tough the competition was, and should show the future Brookline soccer teams that their work is cut out for them. Despite this, many players met with individual success while getting an opportunity to play some new positions.

Just a few fond memories: our productive discussions with coach . . . The cannonball run . . . "Sam is hype!" . . . Hannigan's flip throw . . . Patey playing sweeper . . . Val Cox (Jose) . . . our bruising assistant coach Reynaldo from Brazil . . . and Theo's infamous, "What's that in your other hand, coach?"

Good luck next year.

This cross country season started off slowly, but when we finally got in shape we were awesome. Our record was 4-6 with most of our losses in the beginning of the season. We showed our improvement by avenging early season losses at the league meet by beating three of the teams we had lost to. (We won't even talk about the Franklin Park meets which always end up being in weather that any normal person would stay inside in.)

Dave "and his hair was perfect" Steinbergh, led the way through the season. We wish Dave the best of luck in a strong season next year. Ben Honoroff and Drew "sex Fiend" McClaskey were forces to be reckoned with and should be close on Steinbergh's heels next year. Felix — what happened? Jesse N., we missed you. Dan Marshall, stop calculating and start racing as hard as you practice. Our "Wonder Ego," Dave Zak with practice (a rarity) could win the state meet (we'll see). Ethan, we were glad to see you hobble onto V halfway through the season. Well Joe, that's the way it goes, sorry you had to lose your $10. Marc R., we hope you will find the girl of your dreams in Braintree with one of your famous lines. Dan R., Deni S., Dan N., Matt W., the Marks and everyone else, good luck next year. (Word up to the JV posse!)

Finally, we would like to thank and congratulate Dave Counts on a great first season coaching Cross Country. His devotion and commitment to us is inspiring. We wish Dave the best of luck in upcoming seasons or whatever he pursues. Thanks.

Matt and Andrew

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

First Row: Lika Sudarov, Enid Chung, Liz Costin (co- captain), Caitlin Riley (co-captain), Lauren Geller. Second Row: Janna Hoadley, Lauren Kos, Lynn Tang, Allyson Toney (coach).

The Girls' Cross Country team's first year in the Bay State League proved to be our best season ever. Caitlin remained undefeated during the regular season, while Liz continued to break world records. With our final record of 6-3, we had a fun and exciting season thanks to: Enid — who came out for her first season and kicked butt. She never heard the end of Caitlin's, "Only 300 yds. left! This is your race!" Lika — who worked hard and improved tremendously.
Lynn — who surprised us with her dedication and outstanding finishes.
The freshmen — who made the existence of our team possible.
Big Lauren — who returned to the superior sport and excelled the way she was expected to.
Not So Big Lauren — who wen we removed the "little" from her name showed that her improvements were big as well.
Janna — whose determination impressed us all.

We enjoyed being captains, although Liz was only considered to be a very good friend. We know we'll be missed next year because we're the only ones who really know who killed Laura Palmer.

Thanks to Allyson and good luck you guys!!

Love ya — Caity and Liz

Missing: Cathy Kim (captain), Kate Granfield.

We took it off, off, off.
We took our sweatshirts off.
We took it off, off, off.
We took our sweatpants off.
We took it off, off, off.
We took our dragsuits off.
We took it off, off, off.
We took the seconds off.

We were in a new league this year and we managed to pull off a third place standing. More importantly, we pulled it off as a close-knit team. Will any of us forget the speggetti dinners, the giant swimming pool cake, and the echo of our voices inside the bus as we drove home from Framingham? We will our "girl" talks while we stretched or the amazing cheeks of the soccer players at Brandeis. Good luck in the years to come. Keep the spirit and hold Fernando close to your hearts.

Girls Indoor Track

Row One: (co- captains) Enid Chung, Caitlin Riley Row Two: Adrienne Scott, Yowanna Maitre, Amy Yee, Maria Hennessey, Lauren Geller, Kelsy McNiff, Mellissa Mills. Row Three: (coach) Mr. Parsons, Aliza Holstein, India Viola, Stefani McGarr, Julie Lavelle, Rachel Price, Lauren Kos, Valerie White, Missing: Kai-Ming Cha, Elisabeth Costin, Kristin Kane

Coming into the new league we were confident of our ability to become a track powerhouse. Though we had many disappointments like our DQ to Braintree and our virtually coach-less month of January, we felt that it was a season of personal and team accomplishments.

Julie and Maria Pred in the mile and 600 respectively, and Caitlin's "all star" season produced a new school record in the 1000. Many also found their events — like Enid in the hurdles, Liz in the 2 mile and Stefanie in the 600 (and 2 mile — ha ha). Because of continual illness and injury, Rachel felt she had a disappointing season. She was able to overcome these problems and prove she deserved her position on our state winning relay team.

We'd like to give thanks to Coach P., Ricky, David, and the guys for their tremendous support.

Good luck next year and don't miss us too much!!

LOVE,
Caitlin and Enid

BOYS' INDOOR TRACK

We started off the season with a disappointing loss but went on to win every subsequent meet. Our success is due to the great depth of our team and the participation and enthusiasm of each member. We finished the season with an 8-1 record, giving us the league title. Thanks to the whole team and good luck in the future, especially with certain future sophomores! Special thanks to our tremendously sexy coaches Dave and Rick. Rick will take you to the mats anytime. We'll be watching you from wherever we may be.

Remember how good it felt to win our last home game & to beat #2 Braintree. That just proves we had potential. Oh well, enough of that. Good luck to the returners — and especially to the seniors that now must move on.

In spite of our site, we had a great season. Our bus rides with Alexa's riddles and Tina's brownies were fun as well as the day we spent at my house making our tie-dye boxers. We all improved tremendously — Kendra with your hand spring, Marta with your tuck, and of course Germaine who doubled her floor score! Melissa — point your left foot. Cathy — thank goodness you decided to join us! Thanks also to Steve, our awesome coach. All I can say is I wish you had begun to coach us earlier!!

I expect to see y'all wearing our boxers when I come visit. Good luck next year. You were all great; keep it up.

This year, the BHS men's swim team accomplished great goals. Coming into the regular season with a small group of determined newcomers, mixed with the three and four year veterans, our fist of a team was all too ready to punch.

Unfortunately, the combination of a fluke illness that struck some of our best swimmers — the loss of our friend now in Israel, and the problems with facing the reality of such a small number of swimmers, kept the season from falling into our hands.

But in the end, with an overall record of 5-4, sixth in the sectional meet, and ninth in the state, we are proud of the accomplishments of our team, both individual efforts and combined. It has been a joy for us to lead such brave, spirited, and strong men into what we consider — complete victory.

your captains,
Brian Hyett, Itai Biederman, Augusto Posada

CHEERLEADING

rst row: Wyly Brown, Larry Wasserman, Naomi Frankel, Elizabeth Kolb, Erica DeVos, Rachel Volloch, Sam orjaria, Second row: Lika Sudarov, Ilana Vayman, Stephanie Richmond, Ethan Clark, Jeff Banks, Dave ookston, Harro Limbo, Third row: Gabrielle Hermann, Dan Lazar, Thomas Mark, Seth Stevenson, Lance ucher, captain Aanika DeVries, captain Dave Colburn, Will Uppington, Tristan Weinkle, Nate Brown, Lisa ckerman, missing: Roger Jerabek, Ben Partan, Virgilio Panyagua, Bianca Vogelsang, Gabe Conen, Todd alker

This year we had to adjust to a new five-day week regimen with all the weights and sprints that we never had to do before. And of course we can't forget the "suggested practices"! We also hope that "poor little Ezra" still isn't waiting by the side of the road.

Overall the year turned out well. Despite bad weather (i.e. no snow), high speed collisions, and lack of female participation, we still sent people of both sexes to States!

And Seth — this is snow skiing, not water skiing.

your captains,
Dave and Aanika

It's been a great year. It's been a tough year. We've seen political ups and downs and social turnarounds. We felt global warming and fought off styrofoaming. We managed to get through the tunnel of stress and stayed on the rollercoaster of Hell; you may be laughing, you may think this is corny but we think we are really swell. As you can tell we have done some things in haste, but in the end it was all just a waste.

Brookline Community Service Club

The activities of the BCSC include: selling flowers for Progressions; packing food for a pantry in Jamaica Plain; making sandwiches and collecting hats for the Pine Street Inn; raising money for the Globe Santa; and helping out at Back to School Day. Many students and staff helped in our program, allowing the club to realize its goal of service to the community. If you'd like to join, see Mrs. McNamara. We welcome your interest and support!

Drama Society

s we sat and pondered over what profound, moving statement e should submit as the representatives of the Drama Society, it ddenly dawned on us: "Why waste the space?" Provided below e five brief bios of the execs for your reading enjoyment.

Toshi Hoo (Pres.): Toshi, our guiding light, our man of many hairdo's. Aside from acting, Toshi is an avid wild cow hunter, televangelist, and also has the world's largest collection of organic roadkill. Toshi will be sorely missed for his weekly "sickness" at friends' houses as well as his calm, conservative demeanor and shapely figure.

n Meyers (VP): Jon, BHS's favorite stud muffin, has gained in- rnational renown for rare stool-balancing talent. Few know about n's more sensitive artistic side. Jon has been touring a small lection of his pastel works, which can be viewed in the Mc- nald's Happy Meal Gallery and at Staples Office Supplies.

Emily Helfgot (Sec.): Emily is more than a secretary. She is like an obedient house pet. Her best known works include her musical adaptation of the dictionary. In her spare time Em enjoys sorting rainbow jimmies, cement mixing, and sniffing Ajax. Favorite saying: "You sank my battle ship." (Hint: never mention sit-n-spin around Em; she had a very traumatic childhood experience.)

inger Lazarus (Pub.): In 1986 Ginger returned to the US after a ersonal solo mission in Sweden, where she conquered the cheese verlords. Back in the US, Ginger took up an interest in the the- er, this after seeing "Fletch Lives" 55 times. Ginger is currently atured weekly on the "The Price is Right" as a Barkerette.

Adam Schraft (Mem. at LG.): "At large" is a very appropriate term for this infamous member of the executive team, considering that he has rarely been seen by any of the other members. Some have said Adam is actually Micah on growth hormones, while others believe he did actually attend BHS his freshman year and then went on a five-year pilgrimage to the game show host memorial in Algeria.

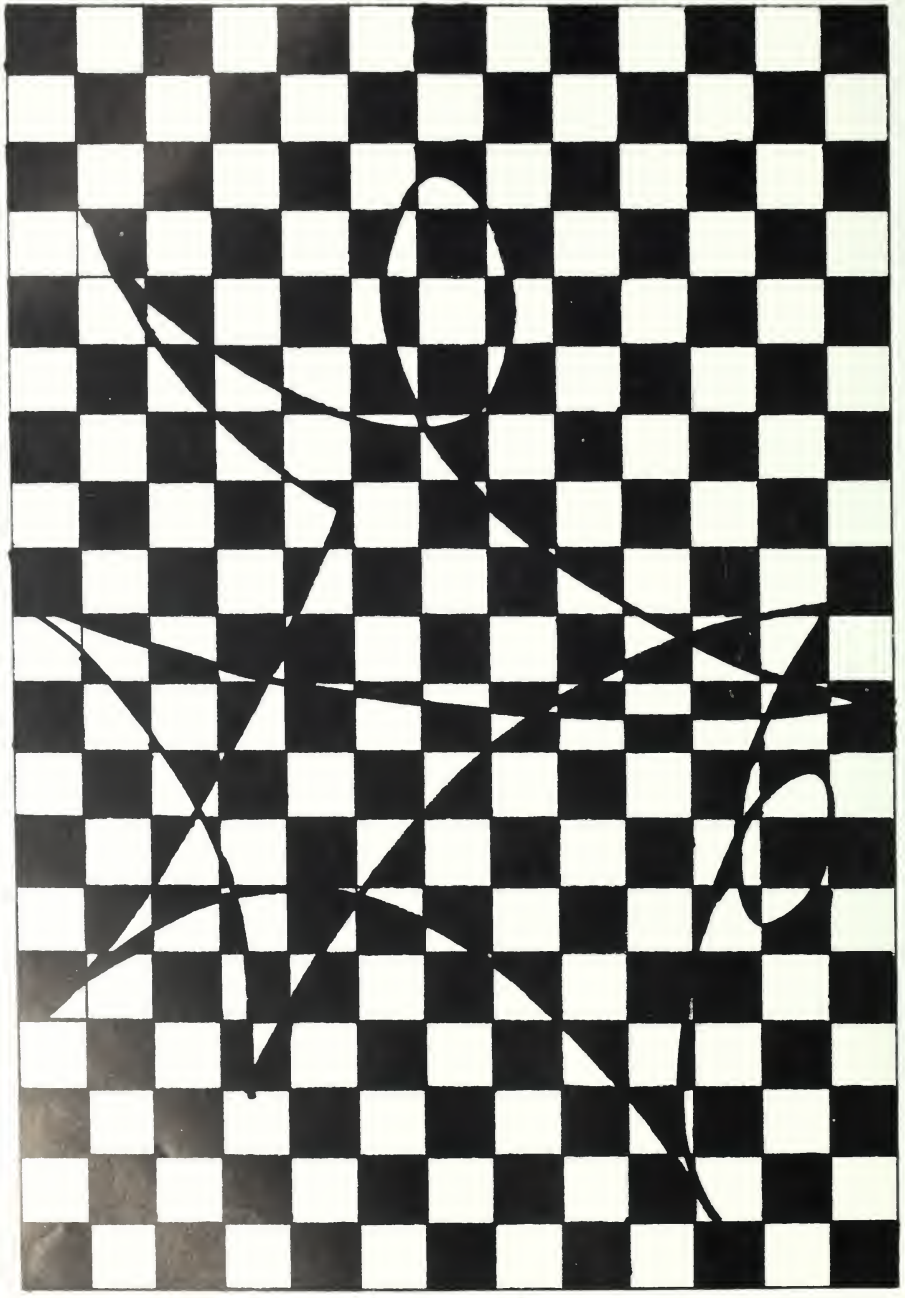
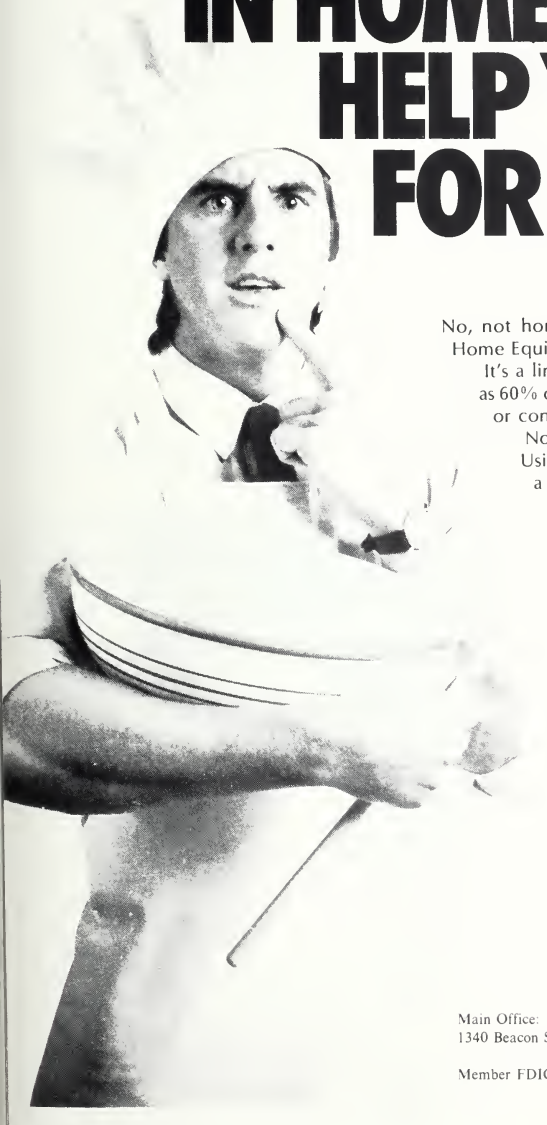
BROOKLINE



HOW A COURSE IN HOME EC CAN HELP YOU PAY FOR COLLEGE.



No, not home economics. Brookline Savings Bank's Home Equity Loan.

It's a line of credit that lets you borrow as much as 60% of the equity in your owner-occupied house or condo, less the first mortgage.

Now it's easy to meet those big college bills. Using your line of credit is as simple as writing a check. And, it may be tax deductible.

Because a Home Equity Loan is secured by the equity in your home, the rate is only 1 ½ points above the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal. Please ask at the bank about any fees.

Take a quick course in home equity at any Brookline Savings branch today. Our customer service reps have all the facts. And all qualified homeowners are sure to pass.

Nora Bloom,

You think profoundly,
. . . work productively,
. . . draw exquisitely,
. . . play joyfully,
. . . sleep soundly
and love quietly.

We are proud of the balance and harmony you preserve in your life. We love you dearly.

Mama, Dad, Lars, Papa, Grandma

We are grateful to all who work in the Brookline Schools, making it possible for our children to have a world-class education.

We salute Ms. Lillie Davis, guidance counselor, and Ms. Osna Sens, art teacher, who are able to skillfully balance challenging students' ideas, supporting their efforts and accepting each individual's uniqueness. You both have played important roles in shaping our daughter's world view and self perceptions.
